

CROSSING TIMBERS EQUINE

WWW.CROSSINGTIMBERSEQUINE.COM
SOBIESKI, WI

Problem Solving

Horsemanship, the art of riding, handling, and training horses. Good horsemanship requires that a rider control the animal's direction, gait, and speed with maximum effectiveness and minimum efforts.

-Encyclopedia Britannica

At this clinic, we will cover:

Equitation Checks and how your equitation affects your horse's movements
Transitions/Body Cues - Consistently, Clearly and Consisely ask for transitions
Problems/Concerns - address specific concerns with your horse

Clinic Schedule:

9 am - 9:30 - Welcome & Demonstration
9:30 am - 12:30 pm - 30 min 1-on-1 Session for each rider
12:30 pm - 1 pm -Lunch break
1:15 pm - 4:15 pm - Group Sessions
4:30 - 5:00 - Closing and Q&A

Schedule subject to change

Cost: $60

$10 to audit - advance purchase / $15 to audit - at door

Small, fun, no pressure clinics allows for individualized attention.

Visit crossingtimmersequine.com to REGISTER

Payment must be received to reserve your spot.
Payment is non-refundable, unless spot can be filled.
Registration closes the Wednesday before each clinic.

All horses must have current coggins to participate. Release must be signed day of clinic before rider can participate.